Greetings!

This letter serves as an invitation for existing, or newly formed, state divisions or branches of the Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development (AMCD) to become formally recognized by the AMCD. If your state is interested, please complete the application, submitted to the Co-Chairs of the AMCD State Division Formation Committee, by March 21, 2020 11:59PM. In addition, this call is to reach out to each and every state or jurisdiction of the United States to strengthen the reciprocal connections and communications in collaboration between the national and its state divisions of the AMCD in order to promote the organization's mission.

For those existing or newly formed state divisions of AMCD that are interested in the national division's formal recognition, they are required to

- a. Complete the enclosed application form
- b. Complete the checklist of application materials
- c. Submit the application materials (i.e., a and b) packaged in one PDF file to ttinsley@transitionsaalp.com for review by the AMCD State Division Formation Committee

The AMCD State Formation Committee will review the submitted application, and the approved state divisions of AMCD by April 3, 2020. The new recognized state divisions will be announced at the AMCD luncheon to be held on April 18, 2020, 11:00AM-1:00PM at Onmi Hotel San Diego during the 2020 American Counseling Association's annual conference in San Diego, CA.

If you have any questions about your state division's application, please contact Dr. Yoon Suh Moh at yoonsuh80@gmail.com or Dr. Christian Chan at chanchr2@isu.edu, Co-Chairs of the State Division Formation Committee.

Best Regards,

Taunya M. Tinsley, PhD, DMin, NCC, LPC
President, AMCD

Yoon Suh Moh, Ph.D. CRC, NCC, LPC
Co-Chair of State Division Formation Committee

Christian Chan, Ph.D., NCC
